

Awards

Stein Rokkan Travel Grant Award

The Stein Rokkan Award is one of the IPSA travel grants that the association began offering its members in the early 1990s. Its purpose is to help graduate students participate in the IPSA World Congress by offering financial assistance towards their travel and accommodation. The awards, supported by the Stein Rokkan Fund, are made on the recommendation of the IPSA Committee on Organization, Procedures and Awards (COPA).

Recipient

Alexandros-Christos Gkotinakos

Alexandros-Christos Gkotinakos is a predoctoral researcher at the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki for the EU-funded Horizon 2020 Project ActEU.

IPSA Guillermo O'Donnell Award for Latin American Scholars – New Award Launch

The IPSA Guillermo O'Donnell Award for Latin-American Scholars is meant to reward a Latin American early-career scholar with residence in the region who is working on pioneering and innovative research in Political Science and who has completed his or her PhD within the last seven (7) years.

Francesco Kjellberg Award for Outstanding Papers Presented by New Scholars (2021)

The purpose of the Francesco Kjellberg Award is to encourage young, new scholars to write and present papers at the IPSA World Congress of Political Science. The award is made on the recommendation of the IPSA Committee on Organization, Procedures and Awards (COPA) on the basis of nominations by convenors and chairs at the IPSA World Congress and is based on standard criteria of academic excellence. Panel convenors and chairs will be invited to submit their nominations for the 2023 recipient following the Congress.

Recipient (2021)

Lenhard Hamza

Lenhard Hamza is an independent political scientist engaged in international development cooperation.

RC08 David M. Olson Award for the Best IPSA World Congress Paper on Parliaments by a Junior Scholar

The purpose of the David M. Olson Award is to honor a younger scholar engaged in parliamentary/legislative studies, the focus of David Olson's research and teaching. The recipient will be rewarded for the best self-authored paper presented in one of the RC08 panels at the 2023 IPSA World Congress.

RC27 Charles H. Levine Memorial Book Prize

Every year, IPSA's RC27 - Structure and Organization of Government (SOG), sponsor of the journal Governance, awards the Levine Prize. The Prize is awarded to a book that makes a contribution of considerable theoretical or practical significance to public policy and administration, takes an explicitly comparative perspective and is written in an accessible style. It is named in honour of Charles H. Levine, who was an outstanding scholar in the fields of public policy and administration. He played a major role in the creation and early life of both the journal Governance and its sponsor, RC27. After his untimely death in 1988, the Editorial Board of Governance and the Executive Committee of SOG established an annual book prize in his memory.

Recipient

Akshay Mangla

Making Bureaucracy Work: Norms, Education and Public Service Delivery in Rural India (Cambridge University Press, 2022)

RC28 Publius: The Journal of Federalism Distinguished Scholar Award

Supported by the Center for the Study of Federalism, this biennial award is given to living, recognized scholars whose publications continue to make significant and major contributions to our understanding and appreciation of the history, theory, and/or practice of federalism in single or multiple countries and/or transnational arrangements, such as the European Union. The award shall be for distinguished work done specifically on federalism and federations. The 2023 award recipient will be announced at the RC28 business meeting held during the World Congress.

